Under-Shelf Scent Unit

Show it, tell it, smell it and sell it!

Now Brands or ANY TYPE OF STORE WITH SHELVING can put out the scent of a product right under the nose of the consumer. It could be the smell of the Brand or it could be the smell of fresh linen for shirting or some other creative fragrance to make the shopping experience more emotional and compelling.

These units can come equipped with a LED blinking push button and signage or with a motion detector, that put a puff of fragrance under the approaching nose to set the mood.

ScentAndrea just makes good marketing scents!
